Rak-Su

Rak-Su, Rak-Su, Rak-Su

Uh, uh, so I've been chilling on the day to day
Trying to find the words to say
Trying to tell my mama there's a chance that I won't graduate
Never in the library, in the gym all night, I rave
Maybe that's the reason I don't never get the highest grades
Uni getting tough and now I find it hard to concentrate Never motivated, in my room, I'm watching Prison Break
All good things must come to pass and nothing perfect ever lasts
Why think it's forever when you find yourself sat in the dark?

I just wanna chill and be in my zone
Turn my music up loud, deep the weight of the clouds
Take my suit off, put tracksuit on
Chilling out with my boys, always had 'em making noise
Perfom at center stage with my snapback on
Alter egos run free, I'm right where I wanna be
Ain't no turning back, this is my destiny, ooh

So, I've been chilling on the day to day
Trying to find the words to say
I ain't got a job, but luckily, man, I didn't graduate
Putting on a dodgy suit, drag myself to interviews
Any hustle is a struggle, but just know you'll make it through
Never asked for any help, way to starving for myself
Got there in the end, but man, I swear to God the music helped Wrestled my way through my junk, can see I did it by myself
I ain't tapping, I ain't [?], I'm chilling with the title belt (title belt)
Chilling on the day to day
We won't definitely bust, but you ain't trying anyway
Thrash man, that ain't the truth
Insult me now, I'm gon' get loose
I just love the vibes of studio when I'm inside the booth
I just love the feeling when I'm up upon the stage
Way before we're getting paid, we were surfing on our wave
Catch us at a festival when things won't be the same
To my girl, I'm guaranteeing you that I will never change

I just wanna chill and be in my zone
Turn my music up loud, deep the weight of the clouds
Take my suit off, put tracksuit on
Chilling out with my boys, always had 'em making noise
Perfom at center stage with my snapback on
Alter egos run free, I'm right where I wanna be
Ain't no turning back, this is my destiny, ooh

I just wanna chill and be in my zone
Take my suit off, put tracksuit on

Ain't no turning back, this is my destiny, ooh
