

No Contest

Rak-Su

Yeah

We got a spark like a match

No other girl a match

Go and cancel the match

I ain't playin' like that

I ain't playin' like this

So I'm claimin' those lips

Start claimin' whiplash

I'm to blame for the crash

Tears in the past

Fears, let 'em pass

Deep, deep lovin'

Only you let it last

Every angle I hit

No an angle I miss

You weren't all that he had

You are all that I have

Girl, you're the one, that's for sure

Don't worry, there's no need to be insecure

I know that your trust has been broken before

So let me be the one to fix it

Your kinda beauty don't need fixing

So listen, you, you

You look good with no makeup in the morning, that's how I like you best

All them other girls ain't no competition, baby, there's no contest

You look good with no makeup in the morning, that's how I like you best

All them other girls ain't no competition, baby, there's no contest

I don't care who they are, near or far

They can never compare to you

They could put up a fight, do what they like (Yeah)

Pay attention to what they do

Wait, look, hold on (Hold on)

You know you're my winner, bar no one (No one)

Competition, babe, know it's all gone

All yours, loving all your flaws, you're a sweet one

Girl, you're the one, that's for sure

Don't worry, there's no need to be insecure

I know that your trust has been broken before

So let me be the one to fix it

Your kinda beauty don't need fixing

So listen, you, you

You look good with no makeup in the morning, that's how I like you best

All them other girls ain't no competition, baby, there's no contest

You look good with no makeup in the morning, that's how I like you best

All them other girls ain't no competition, baby, there's no contest
