

What You Like

Rak-Su

You like to dance with somebody
I know just what you like
So meet me down at the lobby
I know just what you like
A double drink 'cause you're single
Or triple, I don't mind
You call me up because I know
I know just what you like

No need to say it, no
I read you perfectly
There's places we don't go unless your body talk to me
Whenevers, wherever you wanna lead me, I will follow

Oh baby, baby, baby

Hell nah
We don't need no commitment, girl, it's nothing long
You got my attention just like a matador
You're into all these games, I better play along
Yeah, yeah, yeah, woo
I know just what you like

You like to dance with somebody
I know just what you like
So meet me down at the lobby
I know just what you like
A double drink 'cause you're single
Or triple, I don't mind
You call me up because I know
I know just what you like

Hmm, and I like you
But momma told me it's rude to assume, so
Tell me what you really wanna do?
Wanna come 'round mine? Well, baby, roll through
We can have a little drink, a cocktail or two
And baby, we ain't gotta speak, just do what we do
Get on top of me, come and get a bird's-eye view

You like to dance with somebody
I know just what you like
So meet me down at the lobby
I know just what you like
A double drink 'cause you're single
Or triple, I don't mind
You call me up because I know
I know just what you like

You like to dance with somebody
I know just what you like
So meet me down at the lobby
I know just what you like
A double drink 'cause you're single
Or triple, I don't mind
You call me up because I know
I know just what you like

Love is what you like
You truly living life
Living life on the edge
But damn, you truly living nice
And always looking like a spice
For you, I'll pay the price
She holla at me and I follow she
And she always do it right

Hell nah
We don't need no commitment, girl, it's nothing long
You got my attention just like a matador
You're into all these games, I better play along
Yeah, yeah, yeah, woo
I know just what you like

You like to dance with somebody
