

Hyperventilating

Raleigh Ritchie

Blank page, followed by a rampage
Obsessing over blank stage, being complacent
When I'm blank babe, walking a plank grave
Never mind if I'm impatient, not today Satan
Takin' it all on, until it's all gone
Imma punch back for the blame
Sunbathing and naked flames
What am I chasing
I could have faced this on an adjacent day
Nanana

I've got something in my chest up
I can't get no rest now
I am breaking, hyperventilating

Blind rage, followed by the heartbreak
Rememberin' dark days I can't change, and my brain should behave
Must stay, fluctuates and pulsates, like a vein
There's no pain, as always
I don't feel nothing that I can't defeat
Maybe I'm imbalanced chemically
What can I do but just keep being me
I just get through, what else can I do

I've got something in my chest up
I can't get no rest now
I am breaking, hyperventilating

Try try it, till I can't try it no more
Shine on shine on, till I can't shine no more
Feeling myself again, can't hold it in Feel right within, but then

I've got something in my chest up
I can't get no rest now
I am breaking, hyperventilating

Hyperventilating, hyperventilating
Hyperventilating, hyperventilating

I've got something in my chest up
I can't get no rest now
I am breaking, hyperventilating
I've got something in my chest up
I can't get no rest now
I am breaking, hyperventilating
