

In too deep

Raleigh Ritchie

I thought I knew you better than I do but hey, whatever
You lead me out and promised if we drowned, we'd drown together
And now, I'm free indeed, but I'm swimming with my armbands out at sea
And I need a solid shore out there waiting for me
I'll need no sleep for a week, and I'm
Out into the deep blue, out into the deep blue

I'm in too deep
I'm alone
When I need you most
You'll be gone
Deep blue sea
Will you take me home?
Watch me drown
Or let me float?

You carry me, pull against my wishes
I could long for sleep, sleeping with the fishes
And now I see the sea is unforgiving
I want to be on land with the living
I'm easily swayed by the ocean
I'm weak, I'll leave myself by emotion
So I chase things I can't change, can't choose
Out into the deep blue, out into the deep blue

I'm in too deep
I'm alone
When I need you most
You'll be gone
Deep blue sea
Will you take me home?
Watch me drown
Or let me float?

I'm hungry, had sea shanties
The romance is dead, I'll I'm cold and my lips, they taste like salt
I wanna swim home and don't know how I got so
You fed me lies and left me high and dry
Except I'm wet, I'm soaked, I'm lost
And good as dead
I'll see you at the riverbed

I'm in too deep
I'm alone
When I need you most
You'll be gone
Deep blue sea
Will you take me home?
Watch me drown
Or let me float?
