It's hard for a bitch to sleep when she sleep with a thug

Shawty on that dangerous love

She only fuck with gangsters and thugs

You think it's you but her eyes on those jewels

You think it's cool 'til them niggas come through

She only like that dangerous love

She only fuck with gangsters and thugs

She lookin' for that goon that gon' pull up to that room tonight

That gon' put it in her poom poom poom tonight

Don't ever give that pussy to a lame

Fuck them niggas and them bitches we gon' hang

Now never tell me they could fuck you better

I know they hating, they hate to see us together

We got us some shit that they ain't got, that's what they hatin' 'bout

Even if they make the rain drop we still gon' hang out

I know that I did you wrong, I promise to treat you better

I don't fuck with freak hoes, we gon' be some freaks together

I know it's hard for you to sleep when we don't sleep together

I give no fucks about what I lose as long as we together

If we together you know I'm down if you need whatever

Ayy fuck them haters, don't ever listen what people tell ya
