

Fight

Ralo

They tried to make me suffer
Instead they made me tougher
I fell out with my brother, he know I still love him
Walked in these streets alone
That pistol made me strong
I lost my trust for these bitches, my bitch did me wrong
I tried to find guidance, they tried to misguide me
You know I love them haters
Shit, they right beside me
Why do this shit that make me smile made my peoples cry?
Cause the love and the hatred don't see eye to eye
Maybe [?] will never work out
But imma still [?] until it work out
Never been a church guy, never had the holy ghost
The only thing was good to know is who can sell the most dope

See, back in school, I never got a trophy
I might not never get a grammy
A lot of people said they can't stand me
But a nigga still standin'
See they can never tell me bout my life or their advice
If I can do it once, I got a right to do it twice
Tell 'em that imma fight
Mama done made me fight 'em
Imma fight for the title until they come and indict em'

I gave the feds [?]
I'm the lil nigga they after
Daddy made me a bastard
He got ghosted like Casper
They don't know where I done came from
Poppin' the percs 'till the pain gone
Mario told me to hang on
Fucked 'em up when we came home
Niggas gon die if they rob me
Pull in ya hood in Ferraris
Remember we slept on the floors?
Now we on red carpets
Fuck any bitch that I wanna fuck
Make her suck the dick in the [?]
Her nigga scared to come pick her up
Soon as he come, we gon stick him up
We in the club with handguns
Who they think they gon put hands on?
I done put all of my mans on
Lie to a bitch till the pain gone
Stay in the trap for 10 days
I did not make it to 10th grade
Mama told me "go get paid"
Gotta get bills and rent paid

See, back in school, I never got a trophy
I might not never get a grammy
A lot of people said they can't stand me
But a nigga still standin'
See they can never tell me bout my life or their advice
If I can do it once, I got a right to do it twice

Tell 'em that imma fight
Mama done made me fight 'em
Imma fight for the title until they come and indict em'
