

I Know

Ralo

I'm tryna stay away from the dumb shit
I accept everything money come with
It ain't a nigga round me ain't a convict
We ain't gotta run for president, we run shit
All this jewelry cost me bout a half a mill
Thinkin what I coulda did with that half a mil
They said it's stupid, but that ain't how a nigga feel
I hit the top, then brung all of my niggas here
I swear it put some weight on a lil nigga
This for them hoes that couldn't wait on a lil nigga
They wasn't thirsty till a nigga got the juice
They say he ain't have millions, now a nigga got proof

I seen them niggas trained on me 'fore it happened
And I know, that bein broke would only make em happy
And I think, I can make it in this shit rappin
And I ain't, gonna be happy till it happen
I seen them niggas trained on me 'fore it happened
And I know, and I know, and I know
That bein broke would only make em happy
And I think, I think, I think

And I know, that bein broke would only make em happy
And I think, I can make it in this shit rappin

I seen them niggas trained on me 'fore it happened
And I know, and I know, and I know
That bein broke would only make em happy
And I think, I think, I think

I thank the lord, I thank my boss
Summer spring winter, fall
We ain't fall apart
We made our shit Monopoly, every week on a shopping spree
Gotta be [?] to say nobody stopping me
I made it cross that water, I made it up that mountain
These niggas was playin' around, my niggas was stayin' down
They ain't like them motorcycles, but I still bought them choppers
Told em just ride with me and don't let nobody stop em
I'mma buy every nigga Rollies that's rollin' with me

He ain't gotta be close but just know he with me
If you know he with me, than you know he winnin
All my niggas on go, we gone go and hit it

I seen them niggas trained on me 'fore it happened
And I know, that bein broke would only make em happy
And I think, I can make it in this shit rappin
And I ain't, gonna be happy till it happen

And I know, and I know, and I know
That bein broke would only make em happy
And I think, I think, I think
