

Never Looking Back

Ralo

Yeah, Famgoon, yeah

I'm never looking back, Imma always look where I'm going
I might not be the best but to me I am number one
I've always been a fighter, I fight 'em without a gun
My momma's favorite son I've been a star since I was born
Tell 'em shawty

It ain't a fight that I ain't won, go ask the hood 'bout me
Them niggas mad at what I've done 'cause they can't do it like me
I always dress to impress, I'm an impressive person
I never trip 'bout what they say 'cause that shit never hurt me
I- It never hurt me, you best believe you never hurt me
'Cause everything that I go through I know it serves a purpose
I even believed in myself when I was feeling worthless
I wasn't nervous, I told them I deserved them trophies

I'm never looking back, Imma always look where I'm going
I might not be the best but to me I am number one
I've always been a fighter, I fight 'em without a gun
My momma's favorite son I've been a star since I was born
I'm never looking back, Imma always look where I'm going
I might not be the best but to me I am number one
I've always been a fighter, I fight 'em without a gun
My momma's favorite son I've been a star since I was born
Tell 'em shawty

I'm a fighter, you best believe I've been a fighter
And if they try me, I light this bitch up like a lighter
I always flow from the heart, I never need a writer
I told my girl to be loyal, that's what my heart desires
Fuck a choir, we don't sing we move them things
Don't ever fuck with them brothers, too much shit done changed
He ain't the old him, you knew the old him
And since you got some money he think that you owe him
I don't owe a nigga shit but hard times [?]
Don't keep talking 'bout the past, it is what it was
I've been selling all these drugs, taking all these chances
I ain't ever looking back bitch I'm still expanding

I'm never looking back, Imma always look where I'm going
I might not be the best but to me I am number one
I've always been a fighter, I fight 'em without a gun
My momma's favorite son I've been a star since I was born
I'm never looking back, Imma always look where I'm going
I might not be the best but to me I am number one
I've always been a fighter, I fight 'em without a gun
My momma's favorite son I've been a star since I was born
Tell 'em shawty

They say, they say, we will never make it
No way, no way, well fuck 'em and they feelings, mmm
When I was sitting down no one thought of me
Now we sitting back counting this monopoly
I'm just saying we can

I'm never looking back, Imma always look where I'm going

I might not be the best but to me I am number one
I've always been a fighter, I fight 'em without a gun
My momma's favorite son I've been a star since I was born
I'm never looking back, Imma always look where I'm going
I might not be the best but to me I am number one
I've always been a fighter, I fight 'em without a gun
My momma's favorite son I've been a star since I was born
Tell 'em shawty
