

Promise

Ralo

She told him "stay out them streets", but he's a street nigga
Remember? You used to run them streets, nigga
I might sweat these hoes, but I will never switch up on ya
They just rent the dick, you'll forever be the owner
Love don't cost a dollar, but you can get my last dime
She said it's over with, she said that shit the last time
I promise

This promise, won't ever get broken
Don't make me no more promises, could you come and show me Is you lookin' at what I'm lookin' at?
We movin' forward, we ain't lookin' back
No cataracts, roger that Just put the pass in a body bag
Don't let nobody pass
Don't put no one before me
And if I lose the race, could you still give me the trophy?

She gon' ride till the muhfuckin' death
When I was down, she was all I see
And all them other bitches left, and I was down by myself, she was always down for me
She gon' ride for a nigga, she gon, die for a nigga, that's my baby, yeahhh
She gon' ride for a nigga, she gon, die for a nigga, that's my
baby, yeahhh

I got a million dollars, I could fuck a million bitches
You was there with me, I promise that I'll never forget it Life ain't long, but the money long
Them money long so we gon' get along, fuck bein' wrong
This shit gon' be alright
Buy whatever you like
I'm every bitch type
I'm tired of sayin' fuck these hoes
Even though I fucked these hoes
You might as well let it go
Cause I ain't gon' ever let ya go
The [?] strong enough for you to buy me out
Is this the love that my people used to warn me 'bout?
We all we got, that's all it's 'bout, like this fork in the pot
I brung a Bentley through this bitch, I'm in a Bentley with my bitch

She gon' ride till the muhfuckin' death
When I was down, she was all I see
And all them other bitches left, and I was down by myself, she
was always down for me
She gon' ride for a nigga, she gon, die for a nigga, that's my

baby, yeahhh

She gon' ride for a nigga, she gon, die for a nigga, that's my

baby, yeahhh
