Sometimes

Ralo

I just got a feeling, a feeling I never felt before
I heard they tried to kill me, I take the pistols in every show
I don't leave the club 'til I take pictures with every ho
But when I take a picture I have to beg 'em to let 'em go
I'm the biggest opp since they assassinated Malcolm X
I gave them folks the truth, but some people can't handle that I refuse to be with [?], I was where them hammers at Remember for Christmas I used to ask mama where Santa at
I ain't go to school 'cause I ain't have no new shoes, yeah
I got shit to prove, bitch I'm better than these dudes
I never settled for nothing lesser, I knew that I was special
I knew that I was special, I knew it

Sometimes your heart can tell you things your mind don't even know
Sometimes I do some things for reasons I don't even know
Just give me a lil time
Sometimes you just gotta give it a lil time, you dig?

Sometimes I'll be alright, sometimes I wanna fight
Sometimes I'll wake up every night, wanna bite on my teeth
And if them teeth ever crack maybe I'll get some relief
I did some shit they can't believe, I turned a nightmare to a dream
They ain't gotta love me, I promise I love myself
Didn't do it for the money, I did it for something else
I gave my all to this shit and that's some shit I could've kept
When I went broke them niggas left, do you know how that shit felt?
You know, you know I felt used up
You mean to tell me I did all this shit for us?
And you leave me with this shit by myself?
(It's a waste of my time dog)

Sometimes your heart can tell you things your mind don't even know
Sometimes I do some things for reasons I don't even know
Just give me a lil time
Sometimes you just gotta give it a lil time, you dig?

You know I got some flaws and it's hard for me to get rid of them
You know I got some dogs and I promise I would go kill for them
Anything they ask me for if I got it they get it
I'm the one that brought this opp shit to the city
I just want to turn up on these broke ass niggas bruh
I gave 'em all I got, they still asked me to give 'em more
I refuse to go back to that shit them people took me through
I keep doing things for people that people would never do
I think they mad I tell the truth, I been honest 'bout these niggas
I need nothing from these niggas, they need somethin' from these niggas
Don't get mad 'cause I ain't you
You can't do the shit I do
You don't know what I been through
That shit got me through the roof

Sometimes your heart can tell you things your mind don't even know
Sometimes I do some things for reasons I don't even know
Just give me a lil time
Sometimes you just gotta give it a lil time, you dig?
Sometimes your heart can tell you things your mind don't even know
Sometimes I do some things for reasons I don't even know

Just give me a lil time
Sometimes you just gotta give it a lil time, you dig?

Sometimes I'll be alright, sometimes I wanna fight
Sometimes I'll wake up every night, wanna bite on my teeth
And if them teeth ever crack maybe I'll get some relief
I did some shit they can't believe, I turned a nightmare to a dream
