

Maddy Dances

Ralph McTell

Doesn't it move you just a little bit?
And if you watch I think the chance is
That it will lift your heart a little bit
Ooh, well I mean, when Maddy dances
Ooh, well I mean, when Maddy dances

And when she turns her head a little bit
Don't you just love them side-long glances
Surely she lifts your heart a little bit?
Ooh, well I mean, when Maddy dances
Ooh, well I mean, when Maddy dances

Clear the stage just a little
And let the lady move around
Play the right kind of music
To get her one inch off of the ground

Look at her stepping sure and lightly
Ooh, I do swear you must be sleeping
If it don't lift your heart just slightly
Ooh, well I mean, when Maddy's dancing
Ooh, well I mean, when Maddy's dancing

Clear the stage just a little
Now let that lady move around
Play the right kind of music
To get her one inch off of the ground

Look at her stepping sure and lightly
I do swear you must be sleeping
If she don't lift your heart just slightly
Oh, well I mean, when Maddy's dancing
Oh, well I mean, when Maddy's dancing
