

Blades of Betrayal

RAM

I felt a shadow fall, fall upon our holy bond was it in your eyes? Could I have even seen in time Now you hide away, spineless and honourless
Was it worth the price that you will pay?

Walking behind me, my back the target was Sharpening you knives, waiting in cold blood
To stab and steal and run, leave me writing in pain
Treachery stings far more than the wounds

Blades of Betrayal glimmer in the dark
A trail of blood leads to the cursed gallows
Spirit of vengeance make the fallen stand
Treachorous one you are cursed and damned

Lead MJ
Lead HG

I gave you high command, marched with you into war back to back we fought, in loss and victory
But after all these years you revealed your true nature
Slithering and crawling through the dirt

Blades of Betrayal glimmer in the dark
A trail of blood leads to the cursed gallows
Spirit of vengeance make the fallen stand
Treachorous one you are cursed and damned
