

I Make Time

Ramengvrl

I make time man
I make time
I make time
I make time man

Put your time on me
Baby put your time on me
I'm gonna need you to be patient
By the end of the night you see
Gotta be careful with these thoughts
Man it's a chemistry
And if I die because I get mine
Here's my apology
I go to party and skipping the tea
Soon I'ma forget my family tree
All of my friends they been nagging on me
Sayin' why haven't you ever been on the scene
I get the bag, I get the bag
I'm always lit, never relax
I'm always workin' even when I'm not
Please don't compare me to none of these thots
I wanna talk and I wanna pull up
Don't wanna fight I don't wanna break up
I need to conversate, I wanna make it straight
If someone blocking you, I'll take you to the gate
I never ask for you for nothing but trust in me
Sorry I been far but I keep you company
I do take time when it comes to intimacy
Just wanna stack the bag until eternity

All the things I chose have got me gone away (Gone away)
Got you lookin' at the window when it's rainin' (When it's rain)
Put that shit on lock and never look away (Look away)
If you waitin' on me swear I make it rain
Put your time on me, baby put your time on me
If it's what u really want, put your time on me
Put your time on me, baby put your time on me
If it's what u really want, put your time on me

Time well spent making money on the daily
My bags are getting heavy with this paper now they pay me (Moola)
Used to be so hungry now my wallet like my lady (Thick)
I'm making all this cash why you hating? Bitch you crazy
What are you doing?
Don't you act like you knew me homie
I been lit since baby homie
Only vibing with my day ones, only make time when they matter to me
Make plans then we execute it and we rain dance so
The money's coming fuck the fame kept the flame going if you ain't a game ch anger don't talk to me
I been on my grind
Look at the flow, simply divine
Still on the low 'cause I'm taking my time
But i ain't stoppin' it yo just wait a minute
I been stacking paper it just hit a ceiling
If you want a meeting lemme check my schedule
Only beef I wanted is the one I'm eating (I make time)

All the things I chose have got me gone away (Gone away)
Got you lookin' at the window when it's rainin' (When it's rain)
Put that shit on lock and never look away (Look away)
If you waitin' on me swear I make it rain
Put your time on me, baby put your time on me
If it's what u really want, put your time on me
Put your time on me, baby put your time on me
If it's what u really want, put your time on me
