Ramirez

Well, motherfucker, I'm with the shadows
Just reaping, clutching real tight on the chrome
Darkness is falling above us, stepping down to the unknown
I'm out here working with the sundies, motherfucker, shots to y our dome
I'm coming in blasting, send you to your casket, then you're go ne
You rather witness each and beware of the body, leeching Feel your mind, it'll take you way down under when you meet the creature
Your life begins to teeter, life is nice, but that's the sweete st
[?], suck emotions, you can't blame me, the soul keeper

Hide your shit and lick on the 7-Eleven
Jump team and stab with no weapons
Everybody singing, the Yankees defending
The very tomb that I set them to rest in
I got dogs standing parking when they step in my section Boom!
Pull up on a pussy mother fucker with a 3, 2 [?] when the cops wanna come through
See you but I wouldn't wanna be you Think I'm boutta [?] please do
I see through every mother fucker like a crystal ball
I feel like every [?] how I fuckin' kill them all
