The rapper's reaper, paintin' pictures like Mona Lisa
Ten bands to show you can hit me up on my fuckin' beepa'
The money seeka, trust no bitch 'cause they will mislead ya'
And leave you hangin' with pockets dry and a heart that's beaten
Jumpin' out the stroll, losin' all control
I turn a left, but I don't know which way I'm 'finna go
I left these 'motions in a coat standin' in a store
You hopin' I can give you love, but I can't give no mo'

Don't say "I'm okay"
I know the pain is rainin' even you can see it, so don't shy away
Always on the money race, I live my life too fuckin' fast
And I don't know I just might die today

You write my name inside your head and tell me to come back
But when I do you insecure and don't know how to act
You tellin' me that I break your heart and to let you go
That I'm too much and the life that I live is uncontrolled
I'll be okay by my lonely
It's a one-person road, and I'm takin' the slow lane yuh'
You see me ballin' and sippin' on Bombay
You wanna' piece of this lifestyle but baby no way

Don't say "I'm okay"
I know the pain is rainin' even you can see it, so don't shy away
Always on the money race, I live my life too fuckin' fast
And I don't know I just might die today
