Get the fuck away, get the fuck away, get the fuck away from me, ho
Get the fuck away, get the fuck away, get the fuck away from me, ho

Bitch you fine I'll make you mine
Don't waste my time, on the grind
Notice that I'm only with dimes
Smoking dope to feel no more
Just let me go
Everything that shining gold
That's what's been told

'Cause I've been thinking
Bout a way to lose myself
And find my way to
Fill the void that left me broken
I'll be here with arms wide open
I've been thinking
Bout a way to lose myself
And find my way to
Fill the void that left me broken
I'll be here with arms wide open

I'm hearin' voices in my mind in the dark of night
I tell myself that I'll be fine but it's just a lie
Fuck all the money I can take it when it's time to go
I look the reaper in the eye, tell him take my soul
They got me trippin' cause the shit I seen turn my heart cold
And I don't if what we feelin feeling is the same tempo
I'm walkin' back and forth, I'm geekin, on this thin tight rope
I see the sky and now I'm certain we can't let it show

'Cause I've been thinking
Bout a way to lose myself
And find my way to
Fill the void that left me broken
I'll be here with arms wide open
I've been thinking
Bout a way to lose myself
And find my way to
Fill the void that left me broken
I'll be here with arms wide open
