

Never Listen

Ramirez

There's a whole lot of money that you ain't touchin' on Gotta get my paychecks with patience
I'm in the cut up all my 'lone
It's a playa comin' up, ain't no salt up in the game
Let me give you some lessons that'll make your life change, baby
Fuck with bosses, learn from losses, I'm on this baller shit
Presidential Rollie, sixty thousand up on my wrist
Mercedes, look perfect, these sucker niggas don't know the script
Better tighten up before you start to slip and then lose your grip
Fuck what you sayin' if you ain't talkin' 'bout paper
These bitches thinkin' they money like Rami really gon' chase 'em, uh
Bitch, how you want it? I can give you many favors
You know I do it with ease, this shit ain't really too major, yeah

Bitches never listen, you can quit callin' my phone
You and me ain't got no future, you can leave me 'lone
I just want you from the back and lil' bit of dome
Why the fuck you mad? You best be turnin' down your tone
Bitches never listen, you can quit callin' my phone
You and me ain't got no future, you can leave me 'lone
I just want you from the back and lil' bit of dome
Why the fuck you mad? You best be turnin' down your tone

Ayy, come get this all-star-ism
I'm dishin' it proper like I'm 2001, I been sent Rami to show stopper
s
Rince and repeat, most valuable, ain't been bitched
You suckers stay on the sidelines, swingin' up off the tip
Let me breathe and thumb through my money
It will put you out your league
Tryna ball up a player should be a different breed
Internationally, globally known
Closing deals and buy the T box to get what I'm owed
Shake the hands of the CEO, walk through the field of gold
I can give you luxury, but this shit ain't no easy road
Stand tall 'cause you on your own, work on your financial growth
Invest in yourself and I promise that you'll be free to roam

Bitches never listen, you can quit callin' my phone
You and me ain't got no future, you can leave me 'lone
I just want you from the back and lil' bit of dome
Why the fuck you mad? You best be turnin' down your tone
Bitches never listen, you can quit callin' my phone
You and me ain't got no future, you can leave me 'lone
I just want you from the back and lil' bit of dome
Why the fuck you mad? You best be turnin' down your tone
