

Ricky Bobby Six Speed

Ramirez

Been a while since I been home
It took a second 'cause my baby don't know-I
Been so hesitant, I'm such a no show-why?
My baby got fed up with my ego
MTM hit 'em with the heat!
Been a while since I been home
It took a second 'cause my baby don't know-I
Been so hesitant, I'm such a no show-why?
My baby got fed up with my ego
Been a while since I been home

Been so hesitant, I'm such a no show-why?

Bitch, I thought you knew it was Ricky Bobby pullin up inside the six speed
Diamonds drippin', water tippin out my cup I'm pissin pink
Blastin' off like Jimmy, swervin' sideways pushin down a slope
Hunnids posted on the caddy watch the chrome shine when I roll
Pessimistic to you bitches cause y'all one in the same
Just a ball and a chain who want my balls and my chain
Sip this tablet, got me trippin, now I'm feeling something strange
Light one up then take a puff, as I'm surfen' through the rain
Uber walking to a chain now watch me get 'em back
A hunnid racks inside the Louis, y'all switchin' like drag
I'm up in Paris with Mikey and Nick, we poppin' tags
I rather spend than keep it, the money never lasts

Been a while since I been home
It took a second 'cause my baby don't know-I
Been so hesitant, I'm such a no show-why?
My baby got fed up with my ego
