

True Playas

Ramirez

Bitch, please, you better tighten' up when you talking to me
I'm chasing paper, 'cause paper will never up and leave
I'm in my Lexus, in Cali and down in Texas Hunnid' thousand just sitting on my chest, hang from my necklac e
I'll leave you breathless, blow the smoke to the breeze
I'm pushing up on them golden thangs and whipping candy colored dreams
I'm a true playa', never worry about drama
Bitches always coming with the bullshit, but never bring the co mmas
Move with precision, runnin' routes in the rain and snow Bitch, it's whatever, 'cause that's the game and that's how it goes
Play your position, 'cause sucka niggas taking control
Playa' ambition to making paper and never fold

Outside, true playas could never love a hoe
I'm chasing money, 'cause money ain't never play before
I multiply stacks, standing up in the rain alone
I take a swig of my forty then I stand on my toes
Outside, true playas could never love a hoe
I'm chasing money, 'cause money ain't never play before
I multiply stacks, standing up in the rain alone
I take a swig of my forty then I stand on my toes

Rami be doggin', knocking bitches to pay
A pocket full of them bennys, hustlin' so I can make my way
I'm always pushing 'til the day that I fade
If you ain't talking 'bout profits, then there's not much that you could say
So listen up, so I can break you off this knowledge Family always comes first, stay true and remain forever solid
So keep your head up and the weight up on your shoulders
When it come crushing down, the Sunday's gonna end up getting c older
But don't be trippin', 'cause fortune favors the strong
The thunder always gon' come, before you know it, it's gone
Playa', stay focused, the money all in your zone
Your head up above the water and gripping up on your chrome

Outside, true playas could never love a hoe
I'm chasing money, 'cause money ain't never play before
I multiply stacks, standing up in the rain alone
I take a swig of my forty then I stand on my toes
Outside, true playas could never love a hoe
I'm chasing money, 'cause money ain't never play before
I multiply stacks, standing up in the rain alone

I take a swig of my forty then I stand on my toes
