Ramz

Have you had that feeling when you love someone at first sight
That feeling where you can't speak at first sight
That feeling when you have butterflies at first sight
That feeling when wanna have sex at first sight

High-school love

High-school love
High-school, high-school
High-school love
High-school love
High-school love
High-school, high-school

Fuck the fame, yo, let's go and live a private life
I was sending shots, you read in between those lines
Let me take you to the tropics 'cause you're my ride-or-die
Who would've thought it would be us looking in each other's eyes
I used to message you on socials, not even get replies
Now I'm at your door, tellin' you to come outside
Breakfast in the morning, what a pleasant surprise
But, look, as time went by

I made it clear to you
Before them niggas, bet you liked class, I'll be repairin' you
I'm protectin' you
Never neglectin' you
I'm expecting to fully invest in you
Put no stress on you
Show you what lovers do

High-school love (The truth)
High-school love
High-school love
High-school, high-school
High-school love
High-school love
High-school love
High-school, high-school

Have you had that feeling when you love someone at first sight
That feeling where you can't speak at first sight
That feeling when you have butterflies at first sight
That feeling when wanna have sex at first sight

High-school love

High-school, high-school

Yo, I've been holdin' my piece
Since you was in school
I guess it's classroom dreams
Ayy, the first time we kissed it was incredible scenes
Find it hard to believe
Like no one has to know, let's just keep it discreet
They ain't finding any evidence, there's no receipts

Two servings of this cake, one for you and for me
Look, I'm making you see
It's time for you to try and turn over a new leaf
And aim for the relief

I made it clear to you
I'm protectin' you
Never neglectin' you
Put no stress on you

Have you had that feeling when you love someone at first sight
That feeling when you have butterflies at first sight
That feeling when you wanna have sex at first sight
