Makeup, hair, hands, feet did and it's lookin' immaculate

And, stop being scandalous

My whole life, I've liked black girls
No one could say I haven't
From long time, I've been patterned
So done with the chattin'
You might see me with a dark skin in public
And that's even when I'm up in Hatton (Ayy)
Jumped on Twitter to see dark skins trending

Like, what's happened? Uh
Darkskin gyal don't get praised enough
They don't ever get rated enough
We should embrace melanin
Are you even takin' 'em in? Fuck sake, man
Face glistenin'
They got beauty spots on their skin
If we have endless love for them, then tell me why they don't win
