Ghost of a Chance

Well, these walls are just high enough to keep you locked in Locked in for a lifetime Well, you're one lousy step from not makin' it You only got a ghost of a chance, my brother You only got a ghost of a chance

Well, maybe someday we'll get a new start You never grow too old to dream Save the sermon for Sunday 'cause we'll be back one day You only got a ghost of a chance, my brother You only got a ghost of a chance

Well, follow your instincts always Don't ever doubt yourself When the odds are small, don't let 'em stop ya 'Cause we only got a ghost of a chance, my brother We only got a ghost of a chance We only got a ghost of a chance, my brother We only got a ghost of a chance
