Random Encounter

There's no chance to stall
There's no time to spare
'Cause we need a guilty verdict and the guilty one's there!
She's got a modus operandi...
...and no alibi
So let's end this case already!
No more nonsense and lies!

You foolish fools forgot the rules...
...and now I'll whip you all like mules
This case is quickly going down in flames!

You think Wright will come and save you?
That's cute, but naive!
Why else would he recruit you and then pack up and leave?
He's saddled you with failure
Then bid you goodbye!
He's abandoned you defending walls of nonsense and lies!

You foolish fools are merely tools...
If I'm the fire, you're the fuel!
This case is quickly going down in flames!
