

Emergency Meeting: An Among Us Song

Random Encounter

Impostors are among us
Like fiendish, furtive fungus!
The chance of death's humongous!
We must stop them now!

Someone in our midst is a fiendish traitor
Mimicking the forms of the crew...
Tan saw me assist with the generator
That's not true!

I was watching Red head to Navigations
I was getting trash dislodged!
Radios were dead in Communications...
Certainly sabotage!

This is inviting a conspiracy for sure!
What if the killer's lurking in our crew?

What are you hiding? Perhaps you're the saboteur!
I was with Pink! Something here stinks, and we think that it's you!

We caught you, you imposter!
You thought that you could foster
Mistrust within our roster
It can't save you now!

It's a little strange, how you rushed to voting...
Turning on our own without proof...
Paranoia's all that you've been promoting
What if that "imposter" was just telling the truth?

Any bystander will have seen me doing tasks!
I think I saw her crawling down the vent...

This is all slander! The imposter's been unmasked!
Spare us your lies! Your phony disguise cannot hide your real intent!

We've found the true imposter!
Let's send this double-crosser
Back to her flying saucer!
It won't save you now!

Red's been faking fixing all the wires!
No use making me sound like a liar!

How was I so blind to your deceptions?
Pretty strong words for a fake!
You're the one behind this whole insurrection!
If I go down, I'm taking you with me!

No matter how you posture,
I know you're an impostor!
It's time to kill the monster
Heaven help me now!

There's one more still among us
Deception has undone us

What has this madness brung us?
Who will save us now?
