Random Encounter

There's an old saying that the phoenix will rise up from the flame

But this ain't no drama off Broadway or courtroom video game!

Now you've run out of chances and this trial's taken too long

So let's end this...

All the evidence was here all along!

Because Wright is wrong!

All of your logic is faulty. Your plans are all a disgrace!

All of your traps are outdated. Your tricks blow up in your face!

Sad to break the illusion, but it's true, I knew all along
You can't fool me...

Is it cruel of me to say it in song?

Because Wright is wrong!

Forgive my lack of tact, but Wright knows little more than jack
'Cause he's a wacky crackpot quack, exactly that, a backward hack!

In fact, in spite of what's been said, in light of Wright's quite empty head

Mr. Wright is wrong!

Now that you feel yourself sinking and watch things go up in smoke

Finally you see you're in trouble, but all your gimmicks are broke!

Bluffs are just a distraction, and your case is clearly not strong

So let's end this...

And send Wright right back to where he belongs!

Because Wright is wrong!

Wright is wrong!
