

Walking all alone
I've seen the city lights
Restless hearts await
Release from emptiness
Chaos arriving at the point of no return
Affliction, people hiding out of fear

And they have nowhere
To run to now
Whose to tell them
Where to go to anymore?

And if I see the sun
Turning into black
Be with me, be with me
When the shadows fall
The darkness has no end
I know I'll be so far away
There you are, with nothing else to say
You've seen it all, now you're drowning in the grays
Another day, a bleaker shade of pale
Addiction, people hiding out of fear

And they have nowhere
To run to now
Whose to tell them
Where to go to anymore?

And if I see the sun
Turning into black
Be with me, be with me
When the shadows fall
The darkness has no end
I know I'll be so far away
