

For All The Nations

Random Eyes

Something confuses my mind makes me pondering my side all the values I've lived for The gentle request in me has turned to a loud scream ensuring the right way

Blaming finger before my eyes Commercial beast has awoken
I won't fall in silence

There's nothing more than the truth of god
There is mercy over you Nothing else will set you free
Only the holy blood of Christ
It will wash your sins away Every wall will crumble down
In Jesus' name

Compromises deceive and blindness will kill but this truth makes you free Why should I waste all my life without telling what's right how to get in salvation

The commercial beast never rests and now we want to rock this out
for all the nations
