

Stand Your Ground

Random Eyes

In the end you're all alone
Among the crowd
You cried aloud

Nameless faces pass you by
And you're denied
One more time

Growing weary in the fight
No one standing by your side

Stand your ground
Round and round
Don't go down
Stand your ground
'Cos your time is now
Don't go down
Stand your ground

It's my battle, it's my war
Beating a million doors
No surcease now in this fight
No surrender and no respite

No one cares and no one listens
No one helps 'cos mercy's missing
Words are wasted on the wind
I want out, won't you pull me in
No one's standing by your side

Stand your ground
Round and round
Don't go down
Stand your ground
'Cos your time is now
Don't go down
Stand your ground
