

Take Me Away

Random Eyes

Sick and tired from yesterday Innocence fading away
you could see the city lights
you can hear the people rage
So hard to understand

Take me away
find a place for you and I I call on you tonight
my guardian angel
take me away

So many times has a mirror made you cry Loneliness doesn't give you any choice
You can see the city lights
you can hear the people rage
so hard to understand

Take me away
I hold on you
Take me away

Take me away
Find a place for you and I,
I hold on you tonight
My guardian angel

Take me away...
