

Tell Me

Random Eyes

Can you see it in my eyes?
The emptiness
Looking for a reason
Is it time for the last goodbye?

What if I don't know this game?
What if I don't care?
What if I want to know the reason why?

Tell me
Do you still believe
The sun will rise again?
To hold on to what we had
Tell me
There is something about you that makes me sad
What you really hide inside

I'm sure I'm not a perfect man
I changed all I used to be
But I think it's time to realize now
The time has come
To set things right

What if I don't know this game?
What if I don't care?
What if I want to know the reason why?

Tell me
Do you still believe
The sun will rise again?
To hold on to what we had
Tell me
There is something about you that makes me sad
What you really hide inside
