

Vendetta

Random Eyes

Closer to the edge
Loss of facilities
Falling in the void
Of nothingness
Losing life and limb
But not the will to win
To overcome reclaiming
Full effect

I'm fighting to reclaim my life
Inside of silent cries
I'm fighting for what once was mine
I'm taking back my life, won't be denied

My vendetta
My redemption
Victory
My vendetta
My redemption
Set me free
In the spirit of power
Unbowed

Now risen alike the dawn
On wings of newfound grace
Revived in the blazing sun
As tributions fade

I'm fighting to reclaim my life
Inside of silent cries
I'm fighting for what once was mine
I'm taking back my life, won't be denied

My vendetta
My redemption
Victory
My vendetta
My redemption
Set me free
In the spirit of power
Unbowed
