

Where I Belong

Random Eyes

I've failed, I've risen I'm running and running getting the action
what ever it cost
I keep the faith!

The sun is going down and I can't find my way without you I'm walking in the shadows and I try to see the light but can't without faith

So let me hear,
give your light,
give your strength
'cause I'm losing my faith
where I belong?
It's hard to see the mystery
Are you by my side?
So help me now
'cause I am blind
And I want to see you again

So let me hear in my world words of life security I don't want to lose another day
'cause I don't want to be alone and night is coming

So let me hear,
give your light,
give your strength
'cause I'm losing my faith
where I belong?
It's hard to see the mystery
Are you by my side?
So help me now
'cause I am blind
And I want to see you again

I want my tears away
You give feels of admire
And now I can feel you I'm alive

It's hard to see The mystery
Are you by my side?
Help me now
'Cause I'm blind
And I want to see you again

Where I belon
