

I Stand Accused

Randy Crawford

I stand accused
Of loving you too much
I hope i sure hope it's not a crime
'cos i'm guilty

I sure hope that i will never have to testify
Because if i do everyone is gonna cry
Hey that girl is guilty of loving you

Though you belong to another
I may not stand a ghost of a chance
But i will tell the world how much i love you
And i'm a victim of circumstance that's been proven guilty
Oh yes i am

Although your heart belongs to another
And right now i don't stand a ghost of a chance
But i still stand up and tell the world how much i love you
And i'm a victim of circumstance that's been proven guilty

I'm guilty yes i am
I'm guilty what can i do?
I'm guilty i am guilty of loving you
