

Love Is Like a Newborn Child

Randy Crawford

Love's beginning
Hearts enchanted
Full of bright new dreams
But we can't take love for granted
Yes, for me, it seems

Love is like a newborn child
Tender and sweet
And in need of care
Precious indeed is the love we share
Like a newborn child

Like a tiny baby
'Til it grows up strong
You lullaby a new love
With a happy song

Because a new love is like a newborn child
Cherish and guard it
And hold it close
Give it your heart
And just pray it grows
And grows
To be something sure
Something grand
Something heaven must have planned
Like a tiny newborn child
Like a lovely newborn child
