

Dancing

Randy Newman

And if you feel like dancing
Dance
And if you feel like falling
Fall
'Cause It will be alright
Yeah now
Yeah now

If you're gonna put your fist
Right though the mirror
Because all your pretty dresses feel too tight
A green forest rises out of desert sand
And sparks dance electric in your hands

If you turn your head you will hear music
Music everywhere nothing but music
If you turn your head now you will hear music
Music everywhere

If you're gonna light the bonfire
Then do it
'Cause it will be alright
Yeah now

If you're gonna pack up
All of your belongings
No, not even leave a note behind
A red moon is rising in the evening sky
You'll feel it daring you to fly

If you turn your head you will hear music
Music everywhere nothing but music
If you turn your head now you will hear music
Music everywhere

Come on do it
And it will be all right
