

Falling in Love

Randy Newman

Your eyelids are gettin' heavy
Hard to lift
Your mind begins to wander
Things start to drift

Your arms are getting heavy
Hard to lift
You sink down a little deeper
You're feeling wonderful

Maybe you're falling in love
Maybe you're falling in love
Maybe you're falling, falling
Falling, falling in love

You stare across the harbor
At the lights along the bay
Your arms have got so heavy now
They're just getting in your way

Look now you're walkin' in the holy land
Yeah, that's you there, walkin' with the king
You ask "What have I done to deserve this?"
Why you haven't done a thing?

Maybe you're falling in love
Maybe you're falling in love
Maybe you're falling, falling
Falling, falling in love
