

Defender

Randy Stonehill

When it all comes down
And there ain't any easy way out when it all comes 'round
sometimes all you can do is shout
You shout

Defender
It's all in Your hands
Defender
Take Your command

When the sirens sing
And they're pulling you on the rocks
When the viper stings
And it's putting you into shock

Defender
It's all in Your hands
Defender
Take Your command

When it all comes down
Knockin' you to your knees
When the powers pound
All you can cry is please
Cry please

Defender
It's all in Your hands
Defender
Take Your command

Defender
It's all in Your hands
Defender
Take Your command
