

I Am Going

Randy Travis

I am going where I've never been
I am going where there's no sin
There I will join my Lord and my friends
Yes, I am going where I've never been,

Don't be crying those bitter tears
Don't be crying 'cause I'm not here
I'll be happy the first time in years
So don't be crying those bitter tears,

I have travelled life's weary highways
And my last journey is at hand
I can hear the angels calling
And I am going where I've never been,

I have travelled life's weary highways
Now my last journey is at hand
I can hear the angels calling
And I am going where I've never been,

'Cause, I am going where I've never been...
