

Love Looks Good On You

Randy Travis

It was sure good to see you yesterday
You seem so much better than when we were together
Don't even tell me his name
Heard you found what you're looking for
Now you're not crying anymore

But that smile he put on your face it breaks my heart in two
I hate to admit it but love looks good on you

I still remember that day
We started packing up boxes, you said let's cut our losses
And get out of each others way
It'll be good in the long run and I knew I'd find someone

It wasn't your fault it wasn't mine
It's just the way things work out sometime
It wasn't easy walking away knowing he's taken my place
But it was sure good to see you yesterday
You seem so much better than when we were together
Please don't tell me his name
Yeah he's all I've been looking for and I'm not lonely anymore

I still remember that day
I hate to admit it but love looks good on you
