Ah yeah
We gon' take it back, yeah

This one, this one might be my favorite one
I said this one, she sees right through me

I know that this one, let's blow it to the sun

Hello, how you doin', what's your name, where you goin', Linda Parker

Uh-huh, that's right

Yes, I know your name, I can't explain, I know we slept together in Houston, Texas

That night we were so wild, you would've made your mother proud with all that motion

How you do it when you do it, tell me, why do you, why do you ever get out of bed?

I know that this one, well, just you wait and see

Do you know what goes on in my mind on those cold and lonely nights?
Yeah

I read about you, talk about you, write about you, I even hear melodies

It's Friday night, the phone is shaking, ringing, vibrating, but it's not her

Yes, I think I'll stay 'cause she might just ring my phone, don't wanna miss her

What kind of a fool am I?
