Rapsody

You make me feel like a virgin
New person
You make me pull back the curtains
I'm not afraid to share with you what hurt me
You feel like a healer
I know I'm imperfect
Tho you make me feel like Jesus
Or how God sees us
Not afraid to show my insecurities like Issa
Love making
Booty clapping like Netty and Ceile
Netflix asking if we still watching TV
Intoxicated, nauseous off your love
Got me throwing up emotions I kept secret
That's how I know you care
Everything I hid you always peeped it
When it's darkest we always attract
The brightest people
Baby, you a light
You shift my whole world to the right
Nothing left but

Awe babi slo' motion for me
Wanya roll a likal somethin' for me
Ooh baby you can do it explore me
Oh I luv it uh
Ooo bae
Awe
I remember late nights wit you
Ooh ooh ooh
What cha like in the mornin'
Awe baby you my lessin', blessin'
I just wanna tell you I do

You could take the sour out of lemons with your sweetness
Solid, grounded like the ones that grows beneath us
I conceive your fetus, that would probably have my features
We laugh, our sense of humor is what feeds us, I love ya
I trust ya, staycations in St Regis, like Weezy
It's hot boy, we hit the beach
Sun tanning my peach
Eyes on us just like the feds would watch Meech
The look of love
They watch us like convos on Beale Street
Your knees week for my Cocoa
Brown skin
With kicks just like Taebo
I win
I dress better, you dress better
We have fun wit it
Shopping sprees on 5th Avenue
We both spend
Make up, wake up
And spin the block again
It's different when you lovers
And you best friends
I feel safe with you

The most vulnerable that I could be
Right around this time
Of morning at 3 (yeah)
I love ya

Awe babi slo' motion for me
Wanya roll a likal somethin' for me
Ooh baby you can do it explore me
Oh I luv it uh
Ooo bae
Awe
I remember late nights wit you
Oooh ooh ooh
What cha like in the mornin'
Awe baby you my lessin', blessin'
I just wanna tell you how I feel

We been together super long
The Dre to my Sidney
It taste like Brown Sugar every time that you kissed me
Every day you made me feel like a princess
Tiana, the black one at Disney
I talked about being a momma
Having kids someday
Maybe two boys, a girl
I'd probably name her Sydney
Thinking back on the plans we made
The looks across the room we'd trade
Holding hands on the long car rides we'd take
I had your back, you had mine
All the jokes we'd say
I loved to laugh wit you
You were never my mistake, a blessing
Your communication was so impressive
I learned so much, you were like my second adolescence
We grew wit each other til we grew apart
My heart crying at the thoughts of memories I utter
'Cause whenever, wherever
You were always there for me
And for that, I'll always love you
