

Niko's Interlude

Rapsody

Yeah

Aye, motherfucker, I'm raw

Yeah

Now, love is raw

Raw is war backwards

For her, I go to war, I'm toe taggin'

Wounds raw

I heal the pain and roll a raw

Evil is to live like raw to war

I dreamed this life inside in a corner store

Strung out since I seen 'em, now his nose is raw

Dancing with The Beatles

And Lucy in the sky

The diamonds here are barely getting by

These white rocks

Black lives

Part tides

Still, the wave won't die

We too raw

Like the pain we feel we need to keep inside

It ain't love if you don't love me at my rawest

We raw like the seed that's conceived when the love is the pure st

We stand up, nigga, they taking seats

I vow to keep it raw, the only time I bend a knee

But never break nor fold

I know my role

Mufasa raw

Pray my scars won't ever be the death of me

Put that on my legacy, I'm raw

Like the story that's told

Of every hero who arose from the stones

Hate bred from the gold and the chrome

We still shinin'

Like cut diamonds

When his stories finally finished they gon' tell you we raw

So raw

Aye, motherfucker, I'm raw
