

Please Don't Cry Interlude

Rapsody

Who are you?
Who are you in your rawest state?
Who are you when you're joyful? When you're upset? When you're frustrated?
What makes you sad? Why do you cry?
Oh, but please don't cry
But if you do
Laugh till you cry
Yes, do that
Love so deeply you taste it
And may that love be so sweet your eyes drool
Cry when you're sad, but don't stay there too long, baby
Rinse your soul of the pain
You'll grow from it
Just like our Earth after the sky cries aloud with thunder
Stand in the sun after, yes
The sun
Always look to the light
May it be so bright
Tears fall
Cry
Feel
Be raw
Be Become
Please accept who you are
Because you, you are beautiful
In thy name
Hamdullah
