

Can Anybody Even See Me?

Rare Americans

Face down, bleeding, no one even sees me
It hurts, you know?
I'm a bird with broken wings, a nightingale who can't sing
Hands wrapped around my throat

Can anybody, anybody, anybody, anybody, anybody even see me?
Can anybody, anybody, anybody, anybody, anybody even see me?

I'm right here
I'm right here
I feel empty, no one gets me
I wanna run away, I wanna get free
Start a new life, find my feet
Just need someone to notice me
To notice me

Hands up, screaming, no one even sees me
It hurts, you know?
A bird with broken wings, a nightingale who can't sing
Hands wrapped around my throat

Can anybody, anybody, anybody, anybody, anybody even see me?
Can anybody, anybody, anybody, anybody, anybody even see me?

I'm right here
I'm right here
I feel empty, no one gets me
I wanna run away, I wanna get free
Start a new life, find my feet
Just need someone to notice me
To notice me
To notice me
To notice me
To notice me

I deserve love, I will not hide
I will not sit around waiting to die
I deserve to be free for my expression of self, right?
I'm at the point where I'm just being me, una-fucking-pologetically
I'm at the point where I'm just being me, una-fucking-pologetically
