

The Painful Part

Rare Americans

It was a, a shot to the heart
You really know how, to tear me apart
I wish I could tell you the truth
But the words fit like a noose, yeah

This is the painful, this is the painful
This is the painful part
This is the painful, this is the painful
This is the painful part

Wow, wow
Wow, wow

I lost myself pleasin' you
I felt so small, like I am see-through
It feels like, I'm the one to blame
To blame
In this twisted, mind game

Wow, wow
Wow, wow

It's like I'm always doin' something wrong
Something wrong
I just want this crippling feeling gone

This is the painful, this is the painful
This is the painful part
This is the painful, this is the painful
This is the painful part

This is the painful, this is the painful
This is the painful part
This is the painful, this is the painful
This is the painful part

Wow, wow
This is the painful, this is the painful, this is the painful p art
Wow, wow

This is the painful, this is the painful
This is the painful part

This is the painful part
