

Rain, rain, go away
Come back another day
'Cause I'm blue, blue
(Blue, blue) Well
(Blue, blue) Well

Baby, I'm chained
I get down on my knees sometimes
And it's all because of you, girl
Baby, I'm chained
To your love and affection
Hey, woah, oh, well

Seems like it was yesterday when you were in my arms
And in a special way
You touched my heart with all your charms
And now you're gone and I sit here by myself
Honey, I'm home alone and there's no love left (No love left)
Woah, I don't know where I failed
For you, girl, I've always cared
I did all I know to win your love and make it so
You'd always stay, but, honey, you turned away
What can I say? (What can I say?)
How can you, how can you do me this way?

'Cause I'm chained to your love and affection
Oh, yes, I am (Oh, yes, I am)
Baby, don't you know that I'm chained?
Your love's my only direction
Oh, yes, it is, girl

I tremble when everybody calls out your name
I said I tremble when everybody speaks your name

Don't you know that I'm chained?
To your love and affection
Oh, yes, I am (Oh, yes, I am)
Baby, don't you know that I'm chained?
Your love's my only direction, yeah
Oh, alright, oh, alright

Rain, rain, go away
Come back another day
'Cause I'm blue, blue

Baby, I'm chained
To your love and affection
Hey, girl, listen to me
Baby, I'm chained
Your love's my only direction
Hey, woah
