

Leave It Alone

Rarity

Telling lies
It's no surprise
I've made it this far
With no help

I can't believe
Believe my eyes
I'm looking at a blank stare
It's cold Hell

You collapse in the comfort
Of minor discomfort
Filling with fear
Your cold bones shake

I don't want to disappear
That's not what got me here
Nowhere to go

And I can't stay another day
Don't have the words to say
I'm feeling low

I can't believe this conspiracy

I can't feel you walk with me
I can't feel you walk with me

On the line that I'm treading
Can't stop the sweating
Filling with fear
A violent ache

You collapse in the comfort
Of minor discomfort
Filling with fear
(Your cold bones shake)
I don't want to disappear
That's not what got me here
Nowhere to go

And I can't stay another day
Don't have the words to say
I'm feeling low

I can't believe this conspiracy
It's slowly killing me
A life in line with apathy
And nothing to show

It's hard to see that my everything
Is nothing

Can't believe this conspiracy
(It's slowly killing me, it's slowly killing me)
It's slowly killing me
(A life in line with apathy, in line with apathy)

(And nothing to, nothing to, nothing to, nothing to)
And nothing to show
And nothing to show
And nothing to show
And nothing to show!

(I don't wanna disappear)
Nowhere to go (Nowhere to go, nowhere to go)
And I can't stay another day
I'm feeling low

I can't believe this conspiracy
It's hard to see that my everything
My everything is nothing
