

(Bridge) x2

What the fuck did you put in that cup
Molly fool , you better buckle up
I heard that shit's a hell of a drug
Too late now ,you better buckle up
Hold you wet and wanna let you fuck
Mollywood ,you better buckle up
Speeding now I just can't slow up
Mollywood ,you better buckle up

(Hook)

Fame, it's even more addictive than cocaine
Releases the same dopamines that's in your brain
Lose touch with reality delusions they no sane
But all you wanna do is be a star so let's go mane

(Verse)

Rock you to sleep like muslim stoning thief
Adultery is bare in flesh you belong in the sheet
Wrapped up sleep in the coroner's office
Meanwhile I'm eating taco bell the riddle shelf smell look like nachos
Fire sauce, 'bout to set the riot off
This the crusades, I'm king Richard the Lionheart
My homies at the bake and soda but they buy us off
And it's the game changer I can make a lion bark
I spit a remarkable arsenal that's the often flow
A narcissist markable artist who get the profit though
Roll out the carpet , I walk it from there it's all a bling
I'm on the good with my nigga this bitch despite the drinks
