

I Was Born To

Rascal Flatts

Well I guess its in my genes not in horoscopes or cosmic things these feelings run in my blood Always was and always is Comes on strong and it never quiets
Never had to work that hard at love
It ain't magic, know it's automatic
You walk in a room
Girl I gotta have it
Cupid didn't even have to let an arrow go
There was no love potion
No walking on the ocean
No miracle hat to break through
If you wonder why I love you like I do
Baby I was born too
What everybody else calls a mystery
Sure comes easy to me
Yeah you might say I'm natural
Well its got nothing to do with me
It's all about you and the way you set me free
To be the man who has it all
It ain't magic, know it's automatic
You walk in a room
Girl I gotta have it
Cupid didn't even have to let an arrow go
There was no love potion
No walking on the ocean
No miracle hat to break through
If you wonder why I love you like I do
Baby I was born to love (love), give (give)
Share everything that I'm feeling only with you
It ain't magic, know it's automatic
You walk in a room
Girl I gotta have it
Cupid didn't even have to let an arrow go
There was no love potion
No walking on the ocean
No miracle hat to break through
If you wonder why I love you like I do
Baby I was born too
If you wonder why I love you like I do
Baby I was born too
Oh
